

Olga Kuramshina

Of Counsel

Olga.Kuramshina@mgap.ru
+7 495 663 5063

Experience at MGAP:

Olga is a qualified Russian lawyer with a specialisation in Corporate, Tax, Family and Labour law. She leads the projects related to holdings structuring, legal and tax support, selling and buying assets in Russia and abroad.

Olga is also specializing in divorce procedures, determining the custody of children, and division of marital property. She represents the client in the course of mediation. Dealing with these kind of issues, Olga tries to provide maximum comfort to the clients in such a difficult period in their lives.

Olga has substantial experience in Labour law. She represents employers' and employees' interests in labour disputes and assists the parties in mediation. Olga has a particular professional interest in BEPS plan application in order to prevent base erosion.

Olga analyses intra-group deals and prepares the documents for tax control purposes of such deals.

Education:

- Graduate Diploma in Law, Russian Customs Academy, 2010
- Certificate of Research Degree, Russian Customs Academy, 2012
- LLM (Master of law), Pericles Law Center for International Legal Education, Moscow (2021)

Professional experience:

Olga joined MGAP in 2019. Previously, she worked as a Senior Associate in an international legal consulting company. Before 2011, Olga worked as a lawyer in Russian manufacturing and trade holding.

Additional information:

Olga speaks Russian and English.