

Ekaterina Tsabria

Partner MGAP Georgia

E-mail: Ekaterina.Tsabria@mgap.co.uk

DD: +998 90 174 74 74

Experience at MGAP:

Ekaterina joined MGAP team as a multi-jurisdictional (Common & Civil law background) lawyer with 10+ years of in-house experience in Energy sector. Now, being based in a new MGAP Office in Georgia, Ekaterina pursues all types of business establishment and commercial cooperation projects for foreign and domestic clients, including consultations for energy industry, commercial, corporate and governance support to new and existing businesses, business compliance, trade controls and regulatory compliance for the specific licensed or permit-based regimes of entrepreneurship in Georgia, Azerbaijan and Central Asian countries.

Education:

- Bachelor of Arts in International Commercial Law, University of Westminster (UK), 2007
- Bachelor's degree in Jurisprudence, Tashkent State University of Law (Uzbekistan), 2011

Professional experience:

Ekaterina joined MGAP in 2021. Previously she worked as Country Head of Legal and Contracts in an international oilfield services corporation in different jurisdictions, where her career first began in the Central Asian countries, and she was then relocated to support Georgian and Azerbaijani operational activity. Before, in 2009-2012, Ekaterina was supporting commencement of the international investment project for construction of Gas-to-Liquids giant plant in Uzbekistan.

Languages:

Ekaterina speaks Russian, English and Uzbek fluently. Italian – intermediary level; Georgian – beginner.